

For Immediate Release

LOYOLA BASKETBALL STAR KILLED IN MOTORCYCLE CRASH

Duane M. Clark, 25, of 7 Green Needle Drive, Scarborough, Maine, a star basketball player with Loyola College Warriors, was killed last Thursday in a motorcycle accident near his home.

Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Clark, was a first year Arts student who came to Loyola following a two-year tour of duty in Viet Nam with the U.S. Army.

An outstanding guard with Doug Daigneault's quintet, Clark was named to the second team Ottawa-St. Lawrence Athletic Association All-Star aggregation, after helping lead Loyola to its fourth consecutive undefeated conference record.

-30-

TERRY PYE
Sports Information Director